Program Eligibility

- Agencies' administering a program self-select which focus area (education, financial stability and healthy living) and/or basic needs/emergency services they would like to advance and/or support based on their abilities to align with United Way's funding priorities.
- Eligible organizations must:
  1. Document nonprofit status and reflect services meet a recognized human service need.
  2. Prohibit discrimination by an individual's sex, race, color, national origin, age, religion, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or any other legally protected characteristic.
  3. Operate on a sound financial basis in accordance with GAAP and maintain adequate accounting and reporting systems; and if operating budget exceeds $150,000, have an annual audit. Agencies with an annual operating budget under $150,000 must have an annual financial review.
  4. Be anti-terrorism compliant with the USA Patriot Act and other counter terrorism laws.
  5. Complete a formal program funding agreement prior to receiving a grant award.
- In general, grant proposals seeking funds for the following will be deemed ineligible:
  1. Political purposes or programs requiring religious participation
  2. Fundraising expenses or debt reduction
  3. Activities which are contrary to the goals, aspirations and policies of United Way or incompatible with United Way's mission as determined by the Board

Process and Timeline

- Volunteers of the Community Investment Review Panel are confirmed by the Board. Each volunteer is required to complete United Way's Conflict of Interest Acknowledgement and Disclosure form and participate in an orientation each year. United Way staff members are prohibited from being a member of the panel.
- The panel reviews grant proposals and meets with potential grantees after staff confirms all required sections of the grant proposal have been met and the Community Investment Committee, along with some of the panel members, has deemed proposals meet Board-approved priorities.
- The panel recommends to the Board grant awards.
- If an agency wishes to appeal the Board's decision as it pertains directly to the agency, agency officials must adhere to the following steps to be considered by the Board:
  1. Submit a completed appeal application, along with supporting documentation for the basis of the appeal, no later than April 30. Applications are available upon request.
  2. Attend a called Board meeting to present the agency's case for the appeal. Every effort will be made to have this meeting within 30 days of receipt of the appeal application and support document. All appeal decisions are final.
